ENGINEERING A SMART NATION

At the National University of Singapore (NUS), we believe that innovation and resilience will shape our future.

These core NUS values empowered Lee Hong to thrive during his internship in a Silicon Valley start up and classes at Stanford University under the NUS Overseas Colleges programme. Upon graduation, he joined Dyson and learnt robotics.

His present role in GovTech enables Lee Hong to engineer technology that would transform Singapore into a truly Smart Nation.

Applications to NUS are now open to:

- All nationalities with either a Diploma from a Polytechnic in Singapore or in the final year of Polytechnic studies
- Singapore Citizens and Singapore Permanent Residents with qualifications other than the Singapore-Cambridge GCE 'A' Level and Polytechnic Diplomas

Applications close on 21 February 2019.

Lau Lee Hong
Embedded Software Engineer, GovTech
Alumnus, NUS Engineering
Alumnus, Singapore Polytechnic
